

"Circulation Books Open to All."

cetorlo.

"Circulation Books Open to All."

NIGHT

PRICE ONE CENT

PRICE ONE CENT.

NEW YORK, THURSDAY, MAY 7, 1903.

GIANTS WIN.

PHILADELPHIA 0 0 2 1 0 0 1 0 0— 4 NEW YORK 1 1 0 2 3 0 1 0 — 8

BROOKLYN WINS

BOSTON 0 0 0 0 0 1 0 0 0— †
BROOKLYN 0 0 7 3 1 0 1 0 —12

At St. Louis-End fifth inning: Chicago, 9; St. Louis, O.

At Cambridge—End of seventh: Harvard, 5; Brown, 0.

AMERICAN LEAGUE.

NEW YORK 1 0 0 0 1 0 0 0 0- 2

BOSTON 1 1 0 0 0 1 3 0 - 6

At Cleveland-End of fourth: Detroit, O; Cleveland, 1.

LATE RESULTS AT MORRIS PARK.

AT WORTH.

Fourth Race—Lucy E. S. 1, Maggie Leeber 2, Tribune 3.

AT LOUISVILLE.

Third Race-Lord Radings 1, Dr. Nowlin 2, Kingalong 3. Fourh Race-Monsieur Braucaire, The Crisis, Judge Himes.

At Chicago-End of fifth: St. Louis, 2; Chicago, 4.

Sixth Race-Satire 1, Nevermore 2, Rough Rider 3.

Third Race—Huzzah 1, Nitrate 2. Little Scout 3.

At Philadelphia-End of seventh: Washington, 3; Phila., 15.

BOSTON

INVADERS 2,

At Pittsburg-End sixth inning: Cincinnati, 2; Pittsburg, 1

Comasso Lombardo, Arrested Shortly After Miss Sturtevant Was Shot Dead While Defending Her Father, Is Bein the Tragedy.

lieved by the Police to Be Implicated

Miss Sturtevant, a girl of rare courage and presence of mind, lost her life in defense of a satchel she was carrying which contained checks and bank books, the property of her father. He tried to capture the burglar after his daughter had been shot and two shots were fired at him, but the assassin escaped on a bicycle. When Lombardo was arrested he was riding a bicycle covered with mud of a character such as is found on the road leading from Medford to the heart of Boston.

ONE SHOT KILLED HER. The plucky young woman was killed in sight of her aged father and mother, who are prostrated over the tragedy. One shot was fired at her by the burglar, whose aim was true. It struck her in the head and she died

Mr. Sturtevant, as treasurer and manager of the Medford Cooperative Bank, was attending to his duties in the bank building up to a late hour last night. It is customary in this bank for the stockholders to meet once a week to pay their shares, and the regular meeting occurred yesterday

Miss Sturtevant acted as secretary for her father. She accompanied him from the bank after they had locked the doors and made sure that everything was safe. Mrs. Sturtevant had spent the evening at the residence of Charles R. Gray at No. 13 Marshall street. Her husband and daughter called for her there and the three walked home in the bright moonlight. Johnny McGraw's boys came to their

A satchel containing bank books and checks that had been turned in own to-day. Philadelphia was the induring the meeting was carried by Miss Sturtevant. Mr. Sturtevant and his tended victim, dear old Phila, that thinks wife walked together, the daughter a few steps behind them. In Chester avenue, a few doors from their home, the Sturtevants noticed a bicycle leaning against a fence, but thought nothing of it, believing the machine to be the property of some young man calling in the neighborhood, They were talking and laughing as they reached the short cement walk leading from the street to the plazza of the Sturtevant home. There was an incandescent light on the porch, and by its rays Mr. Sturtevant, who had gone ahead of his wife and daughter, stooped to place assisted to McGann. No runs. the key in the lock of the door. The women were standing together at the foot of the short flight of steps leading to the piazza. A man appeared out of the shadow thrown by some trees in front of the house and started toward Nellie Sturtevant. He had a revolver in his hand and ordered her to give him the bag.

Mr. Sturtevant, hearing the strange voice, turned in time to see a man running toward his daughter with a revolver pointed in her direction. Mr. Sturtevant with a cry of fear ran up on the porch.

SHE ATTACKS THE ASSASSIN. The brave girl did not hesitate a second in her line of action. She started toward the burglar, and meeting him, struck him over the head with her umbrella.

"Get away from here; get out!" she cried. The robber fired and the girl dropped. Mr. Sturtevant ran down from

Two shots were fired at him. One of them was imbedded in a post supporting the roof of the piazza. The other has not been found. Before Mr. Sturtevant could reach the robber he had picked up the satchel and started to run up Chester avenue toward Winthrop street.

Mounting the bicycle Mr. Sturtevant had seen against the fence, the

(Continued on Fifth Page.)

Giants Tally One in Both First and Second Innings, but Philadelphias Soon Even Up Matters.

BATTING ORDER.

	New York,	31140
	Browne, rf.	2
8	Van Haitren,	cf. I
	McGann, 1b.	OTHER.
١	Mertes, If.	1
	Dunn. ss. Lauder. 3b.	Į.
d	Gilbert, 2b.	Į
	Bowerman, c.	1
d	Mathewson, p.
ď	Umpire-Mr.

Philadelphia. Thomas, cf.
Barry, lf.
Wolverton, 3b,
Keister, rf.
Hulswitt, as.
Brashear, 1b,
Douglass, 2b,
Roth, c. Mitchell. p.

POLO GROUNDS, May 7.-Gorged and surfeited with the slaughter of yesterday, when they simply laid up the Brooklyn team for a coroner's inquest the new Giants have no more chance for the pennant than a black man has to vote in Arkansas. First Inning.

The Phillies had the bat and the first ball Thomas cracked to second. He had no chance. Barry was out on a flyfi to Lauder. Gilbert took Wolverton's grounder with the ease of a tax collector and assisted to McGann. No runs.

Browne got an eye on the second ball and lifted it skyward, but Wolverton made an easy catch. Ven was right there with an old-tashle # ifly to centre that did no good. Hefy McGann was a model waiter and he test the four ball count. McGann watched his chance and went down to second like a Staten Island ferry-boat. As Merces hit a two-bagger to centre McGann grinned and galloped home. I was a hit at the right time. I Hulswitt gathered in Dunn's crack and the side retired. One run.

Second Inning.

Matty gave Keister three balls and it looked like a walk, but Billy Lauder jumped in and Got Keister's hot one. Douglass doubled a beauty to centre. Hulswitt singled. Douglass dut on second. forced by Brashear's hit. Both flied to first. No runs.

Billy Lauder bunted three feet in front of the home plate and beat it out. Lauder got second on a passed ball. Gilbert fanned three times, the last time so that the bat flew nnearly to Burkeville. Bowerman singled to right and little

(Continued on Tenth Page.)

A Business Proposition

WAS RUN AND WON FOURTH RACE. Metropolitan Handicap; Withers mile.

Starters, whts, jocks. Gunfire, 109, T. Burns..... Straight. Place. Old England, 118, Shaw..... Lux Casta, 102, Gannon..... 14 Articulate, 112, Larson..... 15 Yellow Tail, 106, Waterbury..... Waswift, 104, Wonderly...... Royal, 107, O'Neil..... 7 Igniter, 110, Cochr: n 10 Dr. Saylor, 92, Creamer......... 13 14 New York, 107, Michaels..... 4 Zoroaster, 102, Daly............ 12 15 12 Masterman, 117, Bullman 8 12 13 Col. Bill, 120, Rice..... 6 14 14

HOW THE RACE

Action in Accepting Retainer

A sensation was created at the meeting of the Rapid Transi Commission late to-day by the refusal of Comptroller Grout to vote on a resolution exonerating Albert B. Boardman from all criticism for his action, in retaining his membership in the board while acting as attorney of the Pennsylvania Railroad are too finely froad Company in the matter of awarding the franchise for the tunnel.

The issue was precipitated by the reading of a letter from Henry George, jr., a ddressed to the Commission, in which he complained that the action of Mr. Boardman was open to severe criticism and demanded censure. He said in his letter that if such practices were per-letter that if such practices were permitted while Tammany Hall was in power the entire organization would be ondemned for the act of one man. "Still," he said, "your body sees fit to permit Mr. Boardman to retain his identity with the Commission and draw his salary of $10,000 a year as counsel for your body, while actually the attorney for the Pennsylvania Rallroad."

scandalous. Attorney Eleven Months.

He declared that the relations were been attorney for the railroad. Mr.

George complained in addition that such faultless roadbed, protected by the latest signal collors were against all public policy and switch exparatus.

and usage and left the entire commission open to criticism.

The reading of the letter created a sensation to be followed by the greater one when Mr. Grout refused to vote on out of the bunch, was fourth. the motion to exonerate Mr. Boardman Mr. Boardman arose and declared that he had spoken to President Orr before accepting a retainer from the railroad and had received from Mr. Orr the impression that it concerned no one but come out of the shifting scramble. New himself and the corporation. Mr. Orr York II was fourth Comptroller Declined to Commit said, in fact, that it was "all right."

"Now, I believe that this Commission

Mayor Had Stayed Away,

WEATHER FORECAST. Forecast for the thirty-six nours ending at S P. M. Friday for New York City and vicinity: Partly cloudy to-night and Friday; winds becoming north tonight and northeast on Friday. Light to fresh winds.

For eleven menths Mr. Boardman has The Standard Railroad of America.

WINNER BEAT RECORD FOR THE COURse

Whitney Filly Made the Withers Mile in 1.38 1-2, with Old England Only a Length Behind.

30,000 SAW GAME RACE OF GREAT THOROUGHBREDS.

ons of Money Was Bet on the First Classic Event of the Year, Which Was Runt at Morris Park.

MORRIS PARK RACE TRACK, May 7. C. Whitney's Gunfire won the clas-

Green B. Morris's Old England was Lux Casta, owned by the Albermarle

Articulate was fourth, Yellow Tall

The time, 1.38 1-2, which broke the record for the track. More than 30,000 people saw the running of this, the first big handicap of the year. The horses went to the post at 4.15, 15 and, after a little lecture by Starter 8-5 Fitzgerald, they got away with a fairly 10 good start, with Masterman in the lead 8 The field was a big one, and the Jockeys 5 eager, so the colors shifted in a be-20 every fraction of a second. Old England Led at Start. Old England, the tried campaigner was right at Masterman's heels, and 12 after him came Gunfire, W. C. Whitney's

10 wildering way; horses changing position

filly, the favorite, on which tons of money had been placed. At the quarter Old England had taker the lead and was a neck in front of Gunfire. New York II. was third, a neck away, and Yellow Tail, who had come Passing the half-mile post Old England had increased his advantage to a length. Gunfire was still second, but a neck away was Lux Casta, who had York II. was fourth. Gunfire Takes the Lead.

Commissioner Boardman's Action in Accepting Retainer

Sold Mr. Boardman, "I now call upon you to act. If you approve of my action, say so. If you do not approve of my action, say so. It rests with you like a flash. At the three-quarters he Royal fourth. Old England was game, England is a bay gelding, four years old, by Goldfinch, out of Lacania. Lux Casta is a bay filly, by Donovan, out of Lu Casta.

30,000 PEOPLE SAW THE RACE

The Metropolitan Handicap was worth in the aggregate something like $15,-000. It is one of the plums that owners (Continued on Tenth Page.)